THE FIRST-BRIDGEPORT NATIONAL BANK

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. CHARLES G. SANFORD, Pres. F. N. BENHAM, Vice President O. H. BROTHWELL, Cashier

CONSERVATIVE MANAGEMENT

While large Capital and Surplus together with ample Resources and modern facilities, are important factors in the stability of every financial institution, its strength depends principally upon the men who direct its affairs.

The management of this bank is composed of men having long experience in banking and commercial affairs and they are well known for their sound judgment and for their influence in the community.

NOTICE

For forty-four years we have been conducting business at the same old location, corner of Main and John Streets, Bridgeport, Conn., and our Private Bank has been established there continuously. We have received and paid out on demand without notice millions of dollars of money deposited with us and we continue to receive money subject to depositor's check at sight, on which we allow three per cent. per annum, credited to each account monthly. We solicit the accounts of individuals, business men, firms and corporations, and all who want a bank account where they can deposit money, checks or drafts, and leave it for one day, one week, one month or one year, and draw interest on it for any time left with us. We give to the business our careful personal attention as the oldest firm of private bankers in this state.

STRATFORD

The School Board will hold a meeting this evening at the High School building, which is one week earlier in the month than usual, as Supt. Andrews wishes to go away to a teachers' convention. Besides the routine business, it is expected some new teachers will be appointed.

Native grown strawberries were selling in town yesterday for 19 cents per quart. David Coe spent yesterday in Shelton.

Our boys who went camping on Thimble Island have returned. They think there is no place like home. Stephen Roach, of New York, has been visiting in town.

At the Grange on Saturday night the assembled farmers decided that it is more profitable to raise the grain used for domestic purposes than it is to buy in the open market.

Mrs. Sylvanus Purdy, White Plains, is visiting in town. Lillian Munson, one of our teachers, has returned to her home at Warehouses Point.

James Conine, son of Frank E. Conine, the well known grower of nursery stock, graduated last night from the Bridgeport High school. He is one of the youngest boys of the class.

The sprinkling of Main street with water has begun. A few private citizens have had the streets in front of their houses oiled.

Margaret Stratton will sail for Europe on July 2. William Miner of Danbury, who will enter Yale next fall, is visiting relatives in town.

Stratford won the baseball game Sunday afternoon on the Black Rocks by a score of 5 to 5. It is thought work on the new trolley line will begin some day this week.

A few evenings since Miss Vera Brailling invited a number of her young friends of both sexes to visit her, and an enjoyable evening was the result, followed by the usual refreshments.

The Red Men held their regular meeting Monday evening. Margaret Stratton has been visiting Mrs. Charles Stillman.

Roger Morehouse is now the Noble Grand of the Cronquist. Those who had the pleasure of listening to Miss Alice Judson at the Methodist church on Monday evening, as she narrated the sights and incidents of her recent voyage around the world, were interested in the discourse.

Miss Mary C. Fairchild gave a musical on Saturday, in which her class of pupils participated. A baby grand piano was used for the event.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA FAIRFIELD

As soon as the new houses being built by Mr. Warner in Broad street are finished, the picket fence which runs from the Hineckey lot to the library grounds will be turned over to Wallace M. Bulkeley, and he will make use of it for the purpose of fencing in the cottage which borders on the School street extension. Then the vexed question of having School street opened will be settled. The street so far as a right of way is concerned, has been opened some time ago only it has been found impossible to employ men to dig post holes and put up a new fence. And it was not too much to expect that the owners of abutting property would tear down existing fences and permit their cows to run wild.

What this town has long needed has been a summer garden, where the youths and maidens can assemble of an evening and enjoy a cooling refreshment through straws, and chat in groups about tables. This long felt want is to be supplied, for yesterday Mr. Boyle began the erection of a summer garden in the rear of his well known pharmacy. He will take down the northern partition or wall of his shop, and extend it some ten or fifteen feet towards the Kinsella lot. When this is accomplished there will be room for many tables and a summer garden will pervade the place.

Seventeen of our well known young ladies have taken the "Beachcroft" cottage at the end of the school street, and are enjoying a vacation at a camping out season. There are cots for sleeping scattered all over the place, outside and in, and a jolly time is being had by all.

All the young men in town of the same set, including the Huntingtons, the Buckingham, the Deyos, the Smiths and the Thomases, are at the beach and had a roaring good time. They sat on the front porch and sang well known Sunday school hymns.

Kindness was the subject of Dr. Child's discourse at the Congregational church last Sunday.

From six to eight working women are having a delightful vacation at the Gould Home, which is all the place will accommodate. Any woman from 18 to 50 years of age, who gets an invitation, can enjoy the home. The place contains some 15 acres of land, and has a good garden.

Last evening the Fairfield Reserves, a baseball team, marched to the village pharmacy and were measured for new suits. The International Clothing Company has entered the field with extraordinary inducements.

Mrs. Gregory of South Norwalk, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Perry, on Sunday evening.

Laura Dowd of Greenfield Hill, is back from a trip to Clinton and New Haven.

Next Friday it is expected that some 20 children will arrive at the Fresh Air Home from New York. They will remain a few days.

A very pretty tea was given on Saturday at Boxwood cottage, by Misses Lucella and Grace Perry. In compliment to Miss Armitage of New York, who is so soon to be the bride of George Mills. The wedding is set for July 8, followed by a trip to Europe.

Mrs. Harry Glover gave a beach supper at the pavilion on Saturday evening.

Miss Sadie Deyo will attend the New Haven Normal school.

BUTTERWORTH NOT TO HELP SHEPARD IN CONGRESS RACE

Refuses Assistance to Portland Candidate When Asked by Him, as He Wants to Run Himself

New Haven, June 28.—Former State Senator Frank S. Butterworth has come out unequivocally as candidate for the republican nomination for congressman from this district and incidentally refused any support to Col. Andrew I. Shepard of Portland. It will be remembered that at a luncheon at the Graduates club some time ago between Colonel Shepard and Major Tilson with other party leaders it was decided that the colonel should run for congress from this district while the major should run again as congress-at-large.

Col. Shepard, who is thus "regular" candidate for the republican nomination for congress from the Second district to succeed the Hon. N. D. Sperry, paid a call upon Mr. Butterworth in this city yesterday and asked his support in his canvass for the congressional position. Mr. Butterworth replied that he would be very glad to assist Colonel Shepard in this direction, but inasmuch as he was a candidate for the same position himself he did not see how he could help him.

Later on Shepard declared himself as out for Goodwin of Hartford for governor. It has been declared here that Shepard has chances for the congressional nomination are none too good.

At a quiet general gathering of New Haven democrats held at Tyler City on Sunday, while no formal action was taken, there was a strong feeling expressed that General H. A. Bishop of Bridgeport would be the next democratic candidate for governor, and that Mayor Thomas L. Reilly of Meriden would be the democratic nominee for congress from this, the Second district.

HOW PUBLIC IS GULLED BY THE BEEF TRUST.

Testimony on Short Weights in Hams and Bacon—$28,000 for Wood Spreaders.

New York, June 28.—W. H. Noyes, a representative of Swift & Co., testified at a hearing at the city hall today that in 1908 the New York public paid for 235,000 pounds of wood "spreaders" in its meat at an estimated expenditure of $28,000. He gave his figures not because he was proud of conditions but to refute statistics prepared by the city bureau of weights and measures. The bureau's estimate placed the amount of wood purchased in New York as meat last year at 887,000 pounds.

Hams and bacon weighed before the assemblage today showed how the public is gulled. A ham including heavy paper wrapping, marked 13 1-2 pounds tipped the scale at only 11 pounds 14 ounces. Another marked 10 1-2 pounds weighed 9 pounds 7 ounces. Similar shrinkage was shown in bacon.

The retailers blamed it all on the wholesalers and no campaign of concerted action was decided upon.

NEWTOWN.

Miss Alice Allen of Brooklyn is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allen.

Miss Leslie E. Oakley of Mamaroneck, N. Y., was over Sunday guest of Miss Marguerite Cavanaugh.

Miss Elsie Moore has returned from a visit in Cambridge, Mass., where she attended the Harvard Commencement exercises.

Misses Florence and Marguerite Beecher, have entertained Miss Edna Morgan of New York at the place.

Mrs. Henry Ruff spent yesterday in New York city.

Misses Catherine McLaughlin, Margaret Blake of New Haven and Lena Blake of Brooklyn were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley F. Hayes, Miss Loretta Hayes of George Hayes and Loretta Hayes of Bridgeport spent Friday and Saturday in town.

Mrs. Anna Monson and daughter of New Haven, who have rented Mrs. John E. Peck's house for the summer, arrived Friday.

Herman Tiemann Jr., Rodney Shepard, Percy Platt and Curtis Glover enjoyed an automobile ride to Danbury Saturday night, and attended the circus.

Garry Oakley and son Trumann of Mamaroneck, N. Y., enjoyed Sunday with Zoar friends.

The Walnut Tree Hill team played baseball with a Bridgeport team in Walnut Park Sunday. The game resulted in favor of Walnut Tree Hill, the score being 7-0.

Let the Eagle Scream Forth. The merits of our country, and let the small boy shoot his fire crackers of the Fourth of July, but let all of the sensible men of the city of Bridgeport lay in a stock of the very best cigars for the day's enjoyment. July Fourth is the greatest of all days to true Americans, but its celebration will not be a success if poor cigars are used. Be sure to get the best, the General Hale cigar at either or both of Eckler and Co. Main street stores.
